

December 3, 2015

THE PEANUTS MOVIE

Good Grief!! Charlie Brown and his motley crew have done it again. The Peanuts Movie is a true delight for both old and new fans. The music is both familiar and contemporary. The computer generated images make the characters look like 3D images of the original drawings by the beloved Charles Schultz.

Lucy, Linus, Snoopy and Woodstock are their usual fabulous selves and you will not skip a beat as you travel along this memory lane of cartoon heaven. Schroeder lives on ever the love of Lucy. All our old friends are on hand for this feature length movie guaranteed to please everyone.

The scenes with Snoopy chasing the Red Baron are classic.

The story is so sweet and in the spirit of our hero, the gullible but gallant lad whose quest for the affection of one little red haired girl fueled more sequels than the Hunger Games. You will be rooting in your seat and clapping between laughs at the usual suspects and the comforting expected antics. There is so much to love about this movie that I can't wait until it comes to the small screen to see it again.

The Peanuts Movie is a pleasant breeze from our collective past. I sat there with my popcorn and chocolate covered raisins with a big smile on my face. Every scene was like a cup of hot cocoa, sweet and tasting like childhood, marshmallows included. The Peanuts Movie is all about roles, relationships and friendships. It is about integrity and doing the right thing. It is about being a sweet kid and never giving up. We need a little Charlie Brown in our lives to remind us of how innocence is such a treasure and how precious childhood can be when you have people rooting for you.

The Peanuts Movie is a great way to spend an afternoon. I give it 5 nostalgic golden tickets.

